1.2 A reference to a statute or statutory provision includes any subordinate legislation made under that statute or statutory provision, as amended or re-enacted.

1.3 Any phrase introduced by the terms "including", "in particular", "in particular" or any similar expression shall be construed as illustrative and shall not limit the sense of the words preceding those terms.

Basic of Contract

2.1 These Conditions apply to the Contract to the exclusion of any other terms that the Supplier seeks to impose or incorporate, or which are implied by trade, custom, practice or course of dealing.

2.2 The Order constitutes an offer by the Customer to purchase the Goods in accordance with these Conditions.

2.3 The Order shall be deemed to be accepted on the earlier of:

- the Supplier issuing a written acceptance of the Order; and
- the Supplier doing any act consistent with fulfilling the Order, at which point the Contract shall come into existence.

2.4 Notwithstanding Supplier acceptance of the Order, Customer reserves the right to deem an Order non-binding on Customer where it is not signed by an Authorised Person and Supplier expressly agrees that Customer shall be permitted to cancel such Orders in whole or in part with immediate effect by giving Supplier notice whereupon Customer shall be released from all liability and obligation to Supplier in respect of such Order.

2.5 The Supplier waives any right it might otherwise have to rely on any term endorsed upon, delivered with or contained in any documents of the Supplier that is inconsistent with these Conditions.

The Goods

3.1 The Supplier shall ensure that the Goods shall:

- correspond with their description and any applicable specification, including any relevant designs or descriptions as agreed between the parties;
- be of satisfactory quality (within the meaning of the Sale of Goods Act 1979, as amended) and fit for any purpose held out by the Supplier or made known to the Supplier by the Customer expressly or by implication, and in this respect the Customer relies on the Supplier's skill and judgement;
- where they are manufactured products, be free from defects in design, material and workmanship and remain so for 12 months after delivery (unless otherwise agreed with the Customer); and
- comply with all applicable statutory and regulatory requirements relating to the manufacture, labelling, packaging, storage, handling and delivery of the Goods.

3.2 The Supplier shall ensure that at all times it has and maintains all the licences, permissions, authorisations, consents and permits that it needs to carry out its obligations under the Contract.

3.3 The Customer may inspect and test the Goods at any time before delivery. The Supplier shall remain fully responsible for the Goods despite any such inspection or testing and any such inspection or testing shall not reduce or otherwise affect the Supplier's obligations under the Contract.

3.4 If following such inspection or testing the Customer considers that the Goods do not conform or are unlikely to comply with the Supplier's undertakings at clause 3.1, the Customer shall inform the Supplier and the Supplier shall immediately take such remedial action as is necessary to ensure compliance.

3.5 The Customer may conduct further inspections and tests after the Supplier has carried out its remedial actions.

Delivery

4.1 The Supplier shall ensure that:

- the Goods are properly packed and secured in such manner as to enable them to reach their destination in good condition; each delivery of the Goods is accompanied by a delivery note which shows the date of the Order, the Order number (if any), the type and quantity of the Goods (including the code number of the Goods, where applicable), special storage instructions (if any) and, if the Goods are being delivered by instalments, the outstanding balance of Goods remaining to be delivered; and
- if the Supplier requires the Customer to return any packaging material to the Supplier, that fact is clearly stated on the delivery note. Any such packaging material shall be returned to the Supplier at the cost of the Supplier.

4.2 The Supplier shall deliver the Goods:

- on the Delivery Date,
- at the Delivery Location;
- and during the Customer's normal business hours, or as instructed by the Customer.

4.3 Delivery of the Goods shall be completed on the completion of unloading the Goods at the Delivery Location.

4.4 For the avoidance of doubt, time is of the essence in relation to delivery of the Goods by the Supplier in accordance with clause 4.2.

4.5 The Supplier shall not deliver the Goods in instalments without the Customer's prior written consent. Where it is agreed that the Goods are to be delivered by instalments, they may be invoiced and paid for separately. However, failure by the Supplier to deliver any one instalment on time or at all or any defect in an instalment shall entitle the Customer to the remedies set out in clause 5.

Remedies

5.1 If the Goods are not delivered on the Delivery Date, or do not comply with the undertakings set out in clause 3.1, then, without limiting any of its other rights or remedies, and whether or not it has accepted the Goods, the Customer may exercise any one or more of the following remedies:

- to terminate the Contract;
- to reject the Goods (in whole or in part) and return them to the Supplier at the Supplier's own risk and expense;
- to require the Supplier to repair or replace the rejected Goods, or to provide a full refund of the price of the rejected Goods (if paid);
- to refuse to accept any subsequent delivery of the Goods which the Supplier attempts to make;
- to recover from the Supplier any costs incurred by the Customer in obtaining substitute goods from a third party;
- to claim damages for any other costs including professional charges, loss or expenses incurred by the Customer which are in any way attributable to the Supplier's failure to carry out its obligations under the Contract; and
- recover losses associated to any lost business caused by the Supplier's breach of Contract.

5.2 These Conditions shall apply to any repaired or replacement Goods supplied by the Supplier.

5.3 The Customer's rights and remedies under these Conditions are in addition to its rights and remedies implied by statute and common law.

Title and Risk. Title and risk in the Goods shall pass to the Customer on completion of delivery.

Price and Payment

7.1 The price of the Goods shall be the price set out in the Order, or, if no price is quoted, the price set out in the Supplier's published price list in force as at the date the Contract came into existence.

7.2 The price of the Goods excludes amounts in respect of value added tax (VAT), which the Customer shall additionally be liable to pay to the Supplier at the prevailing rate, subject to the receipt of a valid VAT invoice and includes the costs of packaging, insurance and carriage of the Goods.

7.3 No extra charges shall be effective unless agreed in writing with the Customer.

7.4 The Supplier may invoice the Customer for price of the Goods plus VAT at the prevailing rate (if applicable) on or at any time after the completion of delivery. The Supplier shall ensure that the invoice includes the date of the Order, the invoice number, the Supplier's VAT registration number, and any supporting documents that the Customer may reasonably require.

7.5 The Customer shall pay correctly rendered invoices within 30 days of receipt of the invoice. Payment shall be made to the bank account nominated in writing by the Supplier.

7.6 If a party fails to make any payment due to the other under the Contract by the due date for payment, then the defaulting party shall pay interest on the overdue amount at the rate of 1.5% per annum above Barclays bank's base rate from time to time. Such interest shall accrue on a daily basis from the due date until actual payment of the overdue amount, whether before or after judgment. The defaulting party shall pay the interest together with the overdue amount. This clause 7.6 shall not apply to payments the defaulting party disputes in good faith.

7.7 The Customer may at any time, without limiting any of its other rights or remedies, set off any liability of the Supplier to the Customer against any liability of the Customer to the Supplier.

- solicit or entice away from the Customer any person who had supplied goods and/or services to the Customer, if that solicitation or enticement causes or would cause such supplier to cease supplying or materially reduce its supply of, those goods and/or services to the Customer.

8.3 This clause 8 shall survive termination of the Contract.

Insurance

During the term of the Contract and for a period of three years thereafter, the Supplier shall maintain in force, with a reputable insurance company, professional indemnity insurance, product liability insurance and public liability insurance to cover the liabilities that may arise under or in connection with the Contract and shall, on the Customer's request, produce both the insurance certificate giving details of cover and the receipt for the current years premium in respect of each insurance.

10.2 The Customer may immediately terminate the Contract for any breach of clause 10.

11.1 The Customer may terminate the Contract in whole or in part at any time before delivery with immediate effect by giving the Supplier written notice, whereupon the Supplier shall discontinue all work on the Contract. The Customer shall pay the Supplier fair and reasonable compensation for any work in progress on the Goods at the time of termination, but such compensation shall not include loss of anticipated profits or any consequential loss.

11.2 Without limiting its other rights or remedies, the Customer may terminate the Contract with immediate effect by giving written notice to the Supplier if:

11.4 Clauses that expressly or by implication survive termination of the Contract shall continue in full force and effect. Force Majeure. Neither party shall be in breach of the Contract nor liable for a delay in performing, or failure to perform, any of its obligations under it if such delay or failure results from an event, circumstance or cause beyond its reasonable control.
